PURE VOLATILE EUCALYPTUS OIL. DISTILLED FROM THE LEAVES OF SELECTED SPECIES OF EUCALYPIUS.

EUCALYPTUS OIL has long taken a fore-most place as a "honsehold remedy" in Australia. When applied externally it has a Oct powerful stimulant and soothing action but does not blister the most sensitive skin and no application known will so quickly subdue the pain of muscular rhoumatism. Taken internally in small doses, it acts as poworful stimulant and antispasmodic, whilst its secondary action induces sleep. The penetrating agreeable vapour of the Dil is sedative, and when inhaled relieves Authma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and Sore Throat. It is also a most powerful antiseptio and germicide, being three times as offeatual as Carbolic Acid in preventing development of Bacteria, its uses in this direction being very numerous, The active properties of the Oil depend upon a Terpene called Eucalyptol, and we guarantee this Oil, prepared specially for us, to contain the largest obtainable percentage of Eucalyptol and twice that of the ordinary Encalyptus Oil of HONGRONG, OCTOBER 11TH, 1893.

Some commotion seems to have been caused at Shanghai by the acceptance of the post of Senior Consul by Mr. JOAQUIM M. T. vice. VALDEZ, the Consul-General for Portugal. The duty of the Senior Consul, or of the officer accupying that position, is to serve as the channel of communication between the Municipal Council and the Chamber of Commerce on the one hand and the Chinese Authorities on the other, to preserve the archives, and in general to discharge the functions, appertaining to the leading foreign official in the Settlement. Hitherto it has been customary for the Consuls representing nations with only infiguresimal interests in Chius to waive their semiority and allow the office to be held by a Consul representing England, Gormany. The Spectator, however, has not yet given in its adhesion to bimetallism pure to the total number of tranks not coinciding and simple. It is in course of conversion, but the process is not yet complete. It admits that it would be "perfectly sensible" to retain silver if it could be done, but "the United States have tried their very hardest, tried honestly, with their magni-"ficent wealth behind them, and they have failed. If we were to buy silver in masses,

A pig's head, a live fowl, and a large fish were placed before each gun as an offering, in front, of which the superstitious military officers kow towed, bespeching the "spirits that guide the aim of the guns to be faithful and true to their guardians in time of war, and not put them to naught in times of emergency by such freaks as bursting from overobarging or heat caused by too rapid firing, &c." After this ceremony the guns were : loaded and discharged, and the offer-

We do not say that in time the thing would not adjustitelf, for it would a even the National Debt: being lightened by conversions; but the time would be very long—thousands of leases, for example, are for sixty years—and the depth of the misory caused in the interim by strikes alone—for the workmen would sob understand why their reminds.
